Change your Look!

To look and feel your best, your wardrobe has to reflect your personality. Luckily, it's easy to make a look your own—all you need are the right accessories. Check out how we changed the four different looks on the following pages just by adding a few smart accents!

Feminine Style

Casual Style

Funky Style

Gym-tastic Style

Feminine Style

What a change!
A plain shirt and leggings
blends into the background,
but a few fun touches
make the outfit pop!

BEFORE

A cool vest takes your tee from plain to rockin'!

Accent a flirty skirt with a funky belt to give it a little edge.

Add a bit of lace to basic leggings for an instant feminine touch.

AFTER

Casual Style

Jeans and a t-shirt are always in fashion. But to stand out from the crowd, add a few eye-catching touches, like a hat, belt, headband, vest, or bracelet... just about anything can add a bit of zing.

Remember—your hair is part of your look! Why not add a glam headband?

A bright belt (even with a little bling) jazzes up a pair of jeans.

BEFORE

AFTER

Feminine Accessories

Even a purse is an accessory. Look for inexpensive bags in fun colors and patterns.

Belts are an easy way to pull an outfit together.

Thrift stores are great places to find fun, inexpensive jewelry.

Think beyond the store. Maybe your mom has a few feminine accessories that will make your outfit one of a kind!

Casual Accessories

For inexpensive bling, make your own necklaces with beads and charms that reflect your interests.

Watches come in tons of colors and styles.

When it comes to your hair, a few sparkly touches go a long way.

Funky Style

Heading for the mall after yoga class? Just pop on a few cool accessories and you're good to go.

- Cover your tank with a cute sweater.
- Add some super-cool sunglasses and a funky hat.
- Top it off with a few bangles, and you're instantly chic!

Toss on a denim skirt, then clip a pendant to the pocket for a creative touch.

Gym-tastic Style

A brightly colored hoodie says athletic, but fashionable.

AFTER

No need to take two outfits to the gym! Go from exercise gear to daytime chic just by adding a few key accessories!

Pull on a cute pleated skirt over your leggings. It will transform your look!

BEFORE

Gym-tastic Accessories

Great looks don't have to be expensive. Take an old pair of earrings and add some new bling, like buttons or beads, to give them a whole new look.

Jewelry for free? How cool! Borrow bangles from your friends, sister or mom—and let them borrow your stuff. Just don't forget to return them!

For the athletic, gym-tastic look, keep jewelry simple.

Funky Accessories

For a fun and funky look, anything goes! Mix and match your accessories.

For this style, accessories should be bold and eye-catching. You want to stand out!

As for jewelry, it's not just for necks and wrists. Hang dangly charms and pendants from your pockets or belt whenever you can!

Adding a fun denim cap can be all it takes to create an original look.

Funcky ➔

Here are a few ideas for adding flair to your wardrobe!

Get this Hannah look on your own! Start with a plain yellow t-shirt.

If you can't find boots like Hannah's, just stick with shoes that have the same style: big, chunky and colorful.

A plain white skirt will work fine. Just jazz it up with accessories for that Hannah funkiness!

The belt ties it all together. You don't have to find one exactly like Hannah's—just make it big and eye-catching. You could even add beads and rhinestones to a belt you already own!

You might not think black and pink go together, but they're a classic combination. Add a pink belt to a black dress or use contrasting scarves.

Bright, bold colors make a big statement! Wear turquoise tights under a dress with colorful graphics (far left) or gray tights under a bright blue dress (near left).

Colorful

tar style

Balance a flirty pink skirt with a rough-and-tumble jacket in black or charcoal. A fingerless glove on one hand finishes off this edgy look.

Rock 'n' Roll

Shimmery

Go for the sparkle when it's time to hit the town! The short silvery jacket balances the fullness of the red satin skirt.

Miley Stewart's Journal

Tuesday

I am so psyched! It's almost time for me to take my driver's test. Finally, an end to the long nightmare of begging for rides from Dad or (even worse!) Jackson. But first, I have to practice driving – and that means I've got to get behind the wheel with Dad at my side. Yikes. More later....

STUDY!

Okay, it's later. I'm curled up in bed, drinking a soothing cup of hot chocolate and thanking my lucky stars that I made it home in one piece. First, I started to back out of the driveway and Dad yelled, "Wait! Hold on! Dagnabbit, not so fast!"

FUN!

Wednesday

Of course, I was going, like, one mile per hour! When I finally got on the road, he talked the whole time, like this: "Hey, bud, there's a stop sign coming up. Yeah, I know it's a block away, just wanted to make sure you saw it.

Watch the car to your left.

Slow down a little. Now you're going too slow. Ooops, too fast again. There's a curve coming up, watch out. Is your turn signal still on?" I won't even try to describe what he said when I was practicing my parallel parking! Dads. What are you gonna do? Oh, well, my test is coming up soon and then I'll be free to hit the road! I can't wait! The good news is that taking my driving test can't be any more stressful than learning to drive with my dad!

If you dream of belting out a tune like Hannah Montana, you'll need a great voice. Here are a few ways to develop into a stage-worthy singer!

Step 1

Join the choir! You'll be hanging out with other singers (always fun) and your choir instructor will teach you how to improve your voice.

Sing it

Step 2

Always warm up your voice before you sing. Your choir instructor can give you exercises to do.

Step 3

Watch singing competitions on TV. You can learn a lot about what works (and doesn't work) for the audience (and the judges).

Step 4

Give every type of music a chance, from pop to rock to country to jazz. You may find that you're more comfortable singing a certain kind of music—or you may be surprised at which style works best for you!

LOUD!

Step 5

Practice, practice, practice! Get on stage and sing every chance you get. Whether you're singing in the school choir, performing in a talent contest or trying karaoke, it's good to practice standing in front of an audience.

Step 6

Listen to great singers of the past, from Billie Holiday to Frank Sinatra to Ella Fitzgerald. (You can often borrow CDs from the library.) This will give you an idea of different singing styles – plus, you'll get to listen to a lot of wonderful music!

Fill in the Blanks!

Read the words in brackets to a friend and ask her to give an example of each. For example, if the word in brackets is “mood,” your friend might say “happy” or “angry.” (Don’t let your friend read the story first!) Write your friend’s answers in the blanks, then read the story out loud.

The Editors

DEAR EDITORS:

Eww! I just found out that my best friend has a crush on my older brother! Even worse, my brother is crushing back on my BFF! The whole idea is just so wrong! What can I do?

Yucky Young Love

DEAR YUCKY:

You can't stand in the way of love. Even if it is icky. So smile and wish them the best! If you're lucky, you'll find out your friendship will not change!

DEAR EDITORS:

I absolutely hate going to the dentist, even to get my teeth cleaned. And I just found out that I have to have a filling, which means shots and drilling! How can I get out of this?

Filling Fear

DEAR FILLING:

We feel your pain... but here is a little advice for you. Ask someone to come to your appointment with you and do more than just sit in the waiting room. They can sit next to you and hold your hand while you have the procedure! You may feel like a little kid, but you'll also feel calm – and that's what counts!

DEAR EDITORS:

I'm going to take my driver's test in a month and I'm really nervous! What should I do?

Distracted by Driving

DEAR DISTRACTED:

The key is to be ready for anything the tester throws at you. Ask one of your parents to take you for practice drives. That way, you'll get used to being "tested." Good luck – oh, and if you fail the first time, don't try to bend the rules to take it again the next day. Take it from us, that never works.
